CESAR'S DREAM-TEAM: NORTON-MOLDEA

GKG's VI/95 issue relates how the LAPD cesspool-effect convicts Sirhan despite his firing position in front of RFK, which makes it impossible for him to be other than THE Conspiracy's Patsy #3.

Now come G Posner and the NYTimes, reviewing Dan Moldea's changed spots (Iwas wrong) and new book (Sirhan dunnit).

THE KILLING OF ROBRT F KENNEDY by Dan E Molsea (W W Norton, New York, 1995) comes off as a good research tool for proving Sirhan did not dunnit. The author's previuos research is there in clear, understandable prose. His new eruptions burst from cerebrata dimentia.

In this good read the cesspool-effect creeps in as stonewalling, inverse logic and denial play hob with the truth. The KILLING becomes a tributary of the great, grey, green, greasy Limpopo River all set about with fever trees.

Floating on the publisher's advance, the author cannot resist LAPD cesspoolside camraderie.

AND THE LAST SHALL BE FIRST

....Suddenly in the midst of their coversation, Sirhan, started to explainthe moment when his eyes met Kennedy's just before he shot him. [tsk,sic,sick] Shocked by what Sirhan had just admitted, McGowan asked, "Then why, Sirhan, didn't you shoot him between the eyes?" With no hesitation and no apparent remorse,Sirhan replied, "Because that son of a bitch turned his head at the last moment." .... (page 326)

This clincher, the assassin's very own words, the better than best evidence, set forth on the very last page in true Perry-Mason style, appears to be the admission of guilt sought by every DA. Rescued from oblivion by the tenacious investigative reporter, it is designed to leave the reader in the grip of verifiable fact , comfortable in knowing this is it. This is the truth.

Moldea makes a mountain out of Sirhan's smart-ass retort. Conveniently forgetting that there are three more bullets fired along with the fatal shot, the author fools the reader by mentioning only one of those four shots. All four of them fit the close-in, autopsy-report range.

Neither McGowan nor Moldea nor Sirhan can begin to account for four highly visible shots being fired from Sirhan's position four feet in front of the Senator. Finessing Karl Uecker's grand jury testimony and riding his publisher's advance, Moldea's college try to get Sirhan's gun, the Second gun, less than two inches from RFK's right ear is on a par with another fairy tale about a camera-gun between the First Gun and RFK.

The only eye-witness to relate this action properly is Cesar.
....Well, from where I could see, it looked like he was shot in the head and chest and shoulder .... (page 148)

FOUR SHOTS FROM THE FIRST GUN

Sketches of the four shots listed in Noguchi's autopsy report are diagrammatic, not to scale. (see GKG VI/88)

this is the fatal shot fired from less than two inches behind the right ear

the bullet tracks right to left. back to front, upward

Noguchi calls this one wound, despite the entrance wound on the back and the exit wound on the front of the chest.

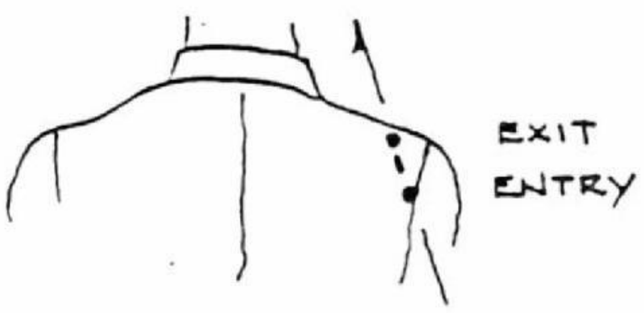
it was recovered near the 6th cervical vertebra; it is the body diagram that needs correction.



Shoulder Pad Shot

subsequent examination of the coat found a bullet track through and through, not touching the body

If you can see Sirhan leaping four feet west past Uecker, firing these four shots and leaping four feet east to Uecker and the steam table struggle, you can strike yourself a medal and join Posner, NYTimes, W W Norton and Moldea closing the RFK assassination case.

THE CONSPIRACY MUSEUM's RFK EXHIBIT

Robert F Kennedy is killed by one bullet fired from less than two inches behind his right ear. The autopsy report tracks that bullet "right to left, slightly forward, upward".

The First Gun, the only gun in the pantrywithin the fatal range, is Cesar's 9-shot .22. He is close behind RFK. He draws his gun but says he did not fire it. Who Did?

The Second Gun is captured still smoking. Firing from 4 feet in front of RFK, Sirhan's 8 .22 calibre bullets miss RFK. Not one of them tracks, "right to left, slightly forward, upward."

Readerboard CENTER

Coroner Thomas T Noguchi's autopsy report colves RFK's murder in 48 hours. Firing into a mock-up head at varying ranges, he finds the powder burn from less than two inches matches best the one on RFK's head.

The First Gun, close behind RFK, fits Noguchi's range. Its fatal bullet tracks, "right to left, slightly forward, upward."

The Second Gun, 4 feet in front of RFK, is out of Noguchi's range. Its bullets do not fit his autopsy report tracks. This fingers Sirhan as the third member of the Lone-Assassin Patsy Club.

Readerboard Right

RFK is one of six persons wounded by the two guns in the pantry. The LAPD solution accounts for all their wounds and three ceiling tile. It ignores bullet holes in the closed door jamb and divider and the stage door frame.

To abolish the RFK threat of Peace, THE Conspiracy's control of the Oval Office requires murder, stone-walling, lying, destruction of evidence and the 8-shot Lone-Assassin Fairy Tale. LAPD delivers on separete silver platters.

KARL UECKER'S BODY STOOD BETWEEN SIRHAN + KENNEDY AT ALL TIMES

K UECKER GJ149 6/7/68

BY MR. FUKUTO:

Q How far was the suspect from Senator Kennedy and yourself at the time that the first shot took place?

A How far? As far as my left hand can reach because I remember I was trying to pull him, and the man who shot, I could feel him coming around me and falling over the steam table and start shooting.

Q Okay. He rushed right past you and did he reach over you at the time he shot?

A He reached over in front of me.

Q And he reached over from --

A Not over me. He just -- I could feel when he -- I was right close to the steam table when we pass through, and I guess I could feel that the gun was about this far, when he shot, right from me, from my right.

Q Your body was in between this person's body and --

A -- and Senator Kennedy.

Q And his arm reached over your body when he fired --

A Around me, around me, not over me.

MR. FUKUTO: Around you.

Uecker grabs Sirhan's gun hand, throws a head lock and pins Sirhan to the steam table as Sirhan fires eight shots

THE ASSASSINATION of RFK · VI·5·68 · 0015 PDT

This was sent to the Parole Board in 1985...to no avail.

When RFK is shot he falls backward, away from Uecker's hand, backward into Cesar close behind him.

Both fall backward in a heap onto the pantry floor. This four-shot action is what McGowan and Moldea, enveloped in the cesspool-effect, ignore in "dramatid finale" on page 326. The KILLING is buffoonery.

AND THE FIRST SHALL BE LAST

.... this book is the story of a murder investigation. It is neither a political melodrama nor a paranoid's paradise. I do not attempt to analyze and explain time and space.... (p 14)

Investigating RFK's murder while believing the LAPD police are objective, Moldea shows ignorance of both the cesspool-effect and the melodrama, which, requiring no analysis of space or time, Media continues to chronicle every day.

Impossible to separate the killing of RFK from the murder of MLK, from the murder of Malcolm X,fromthe coup d'etat that assassinates the President, THE Conspiracy to control the Oval Office traxes its beginnings back to 1945.

Fletcher Prouty tells us of the post-Nagaski transfer of unused WW II material from Okinawa to Indo-China. No one seems to know why. Eighteen years later, with JFK out of the way, that stuff comes in damn handy in Vietnam.

Another four and a half years ,public revulsion at fighting an anti-communist war in Asia sweeps RFK into a shot at the Presidency. His murder directly after winning the California primary and setting his isghts on the nominating convention, is one of a series of melodramatic incidents directly related to that Hot War.

Apparently Moldea's lack of preception of these incidents led him to abandon his original Sirhan-Patsy stance.

To call him names, to align him with infamous traitors of history, to dump him in the same boat with Epstein, Posner and Mailer is to take another ego-trip. Producing but a firestorm of journalese, it will ricochet off Moldea's rear-end as it makes its way to the bank.

Better to ask why did he write The KILLING in the first place? Leaving the Norton advance and an aging brain now devoid of intuition aside, who benefits from this misbegotten tract?

THE Consiracy's most valuable asset, the single foundation stone on which control of the Oval Office rests, is the Lone Assassin Myth. Two years ago Clinton told us that he had no problem with the finding that Oswald acted alone. (sic)

With Oswald blessed by both Posner and Mailer, with Sirhan back in his niche thanks to Moldea, watch for Raoul to come in out of the cold to protect his buddy on the bushy knoll. Ray dunnit in the bathroom and left his rifle to prove it.

A year from now when Specter cashes his Single-Bullet chips at the Republican convention, Moldea will be a shoo-in for CIA's D C I.
